

Sharing Sacred Texts

Messages of Peace and Nonviolence

Presented by Sharing Sacred Spaces – Downtown Chicago

Sunday, May 4, 2014

2:00 – 3:30 p.m.

Seventeenth Church of Christ, Scientist
55 E. Wacker Drive

NEW TIME

How do our sacred texts direct us to stand together in a mental solidarity against the inevitability of violence? How can the hearts of eight different congregations join in yielding to the promise of safer communities?

Join us as we explore the sacred texts of each of our faith communities and find new views of brother and sister hood where peace and justice can find expression in our streets and households.

Parking at Seventeenth Church of Christ, Scientist

Metered parking is available on nearby streets and at Park 1 garage, 57 E Wacker Place. Bring your parking ticket & ask any greeter for a discount validation stamp.

Upcoming Program Locations

June 2014	Downtown Islamic Center (231 S. State)
October 2014	Midwest Buddhist Center (435 W. Menomonee)
January 2015	Chicago Sinai Congregation (15 W. Delaware)